Several sponsors of the Judicial Division have come together to entertain us, inform us and to discuss solutions to the problems that we all face while working from home. These sponsors have tailored unique offerings and substantial discounts for the ABA to make your life easier as the remote-work period for judges and attorneys continues.

In addition to fun and entertaining surprises throughout this videoconference, expect great discounts from and informative discussions with:

- Atlanta Opera
- Atlanta Symphony
- Chapel Hill Toffee
- HP Computers
- HP Printers
- LexisNexis
- Mossa Online Exercise Classes and Step Fitness Equipment
- IST Video Deposition Services
- Verizon and BlueJeans

Need a way to thank your employees, entertain clients or celebrate a special occasion? Use the Virtual Expo to schedule an individualized, virtual performance by a musician or opera singer with the Atlanta Opera and Atlanta Symphony for that special event.

This invitation is extended to everyone. You do not need to be an attorney or member of the ABA to participate in this videoconference. Rather, we hope that following this event you will consider learning more about the ABA and its Judicial Division, including our mission of promoting justice throughout the world.
